Krishi Bhawan, New Delhi,
Dated 30th April 2010

To,

The Principal Secretary,
Department of Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs,
Government of Haryana,
Chandigarh.

Subject: Request of State Government of Haryana for relaxation in uniform specifications of rice during Kharif Marketing Season 2009-10.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to D.O. letter No. CMH-2009/CAL/7982, dated 22.4.2010 from Hon'ble Chief Minister of Haryana on above cited subject and to inform you that on the request of the Government of Haryana and to expedite the milling of custom milled rice the following relaxations have been allowed in the uniform specification of custom milled raw rice for Kharif Marketing Season 2009-2010 in Haryana:

- (i) Percentage of broken grains in custom milled raw rice has been increased from existing 25% in uniform specifications of KMS 2009-10 to 28% throughout the State of Haryana.
- (ii) The above relaxations will be without value cut.
- (iii) Rice procured under relaxed specifications should be consumed within the State for TPDS and other welfare schemes.
- (iv) Separate district-wise account should be maintained by FCI and State Government for CMR raw rice procured under FAQ and relaxed specifications.
- (v) Milling of entire paddy procured by State agencies and FCI and delivery of custom milled rice should be completed upto 15.6.2010.

2. These orders will come into force with immediate effect.

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. Ashok Kumar)
Deputy Commissioner(S&R)
